

DEVOLUTION IN WALES

Contents

| | |
|---|---|
| INTRODUCTION Christopher Pitchford Q.C. Leader, Wales and Chester Circuit | |
| THE DEVOLUTION OF POWERS FROM CENTRAL GOVERNMENT Professor Sir David Williams Q.C. Emmanuel College, Vice Chancellor Emeritus, University Cambridge | 1 - 10 |
| THE LEGAL IMPLICATIONS OF WELSH DEVOLUTION The Honourable Mr Justice Thomas Presiding Judge of the Wales and Chester Circuit | 11 - 21 |
| A COMPARISON BETWEEN THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR WALES AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES David Lambert Solicitor; Former Senior Legal Advisor, the Welsh Office; Research Fellow, Cardiff Law School | 22 - 26 |
| CHALLENGES TO ACTIONS OF THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY FOR WALES Malcolm Bishop QC and Keith Bush Chambers, 30 Park Place, Cardiff | 27 - 42 |
| THE GOVERNMENT OF WALES ACT 1998 AND HUMAN RIGHTS Luke Clements Solicitor; Senior Research Fellow, Cardiff Law School | 43 - 52 |
| THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY Professor Alan Dashwood Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge, Professor of European Law, University of Cambridge | 53 - 62 |
| THE NEW MODEL WALES Richard Rawlings Reader in Law, London School of Economics | 63 - 108 |
| APPENDIX Practice Direction: Cyfarwyddyd Ymarfer : | Devolution Issues (And Crown Office Applications In Wales) Materion Yn Ymwneud Â Datganoli (a Cheisiadau Swyddfa'r Goron yng Nghymru) |
| | 109 - 148 |